ALLEGED BURGLARS GAIN VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL

Boatwright Jury Disagrees. Case Featured by Contempt Judgment

The cases against the Boatwrights and the Kipers were tried in the superior court, beginning the latter part of last week. The case against the four, wherein they were charged with burglarizing the Dill store at Laytonville, resulted in a verdict of acquittal by the jury. Several of the latter expressed themselves after they were discharged as believing the defendants guilty but on account of the failure of Mr. Dill to positively identify the articles as those taken from his store, the defendants were given the benefit of the doubt. District Attorney Hurley handled the prosecution very ably, and there has been considerable criticism of the jury's verdict under the circumstances. The doctrine of a "reasonable" doubt as differentiated from a "possible" doubt, seems to be the sticking point with many jurymen. The law requires that the jury be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt, but the jurymen in many instances seem to believe that they must be convinced beyond a possible doubt.

The other case, against the Boatwrights alone on a charge of receiving stolen goods knowing them to be stolen resulted in a hung jury, the jury standing nine for conviction and three for acquittal. The defendants will be tried again early in December.

The latter trial was featured by a mild sensation when Attorney A. L. Wessels, who was defending, was remanded to the custody of the sheriff by Judge Preston for contempt of court. Wessels had asked a question of one of the witnesses and when the latter started to answer rose and attempted to interrupt. The judge told the attorney to sit down. Wessels remained on his feet and the judge repeated his request three or four times, finally commanding him to sit down. The attorney finally sat down, at the same time slamming down a book on the table in front of him.

"You are adjudged to be in contempt of court, and it is my judgment that you be remanded to the custody of the sheriff until ten o'clock tomorrow morning," said Judge Preston. "Court's adjourned." Whereupon the judge withdrew into his chambers and Wessels was taken by the sheriff's deputy. He was released after supper and allowed to spend the night at home.

JURY ACQUITS MOORE; HALL TRIAL PROCEEDING

James Moore, of the Longvale section, indicted on a charge of bootlegging by the grand jury, was acquitted of the charge by a jury in the superior court here yesterday. The jury refused to believe the testimony of the principal witness, a professional blind pig detective.

A similar charge against Walter Hall was being tried yesterday and had not gone to the jury as we went to press. The same detectives were acting as the witnesses for the people.

District Attorney Hurley has had a hard week, with two acquittals and one disagreement. He has handled his cases in splendid manner, but even the most seasoned lawyers say that one can never tell how the evidence is going to strike a jury.

Attorney Iversen represented Moore and is also representing Hall, and is putting up a good fight.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples the past week: Claude William Pistole, 29, Eureka, and Katherine Cuddeback, 29, Hydesville; George Harms, 24, and Ethel Florence Bell, 22, Willits; Thomas Lucas Addleman, 28, Denver, Colo., and Edith Lizzie Robb, 25, San Francisco; Idris Oscar Gravier, 21, and Sylvia Irean Speegle, 18, Covelo.

CAR STOLEN AT WILLITS RECOVERED AT IRMULCO

A Ford roadster belonging to J. J. Donivan of San Francisco was stolen about three o'clock Monday afternoon from Main street, says the Willits News. The owner of the car reported the stolen machine to the local authorities and a search was immediately made to recover the auto.

Donivan parked his car in front of the office of Judge E. M. Whitney, justice of the peace, when the car was stolen.

Constable Morgan Whitcomb and City Marshal Lou Foster searched the entire valley and later sent notices to the various towns along the Redwood highway to be on the lookout for the stolen car, giving the description and license number of same.

Late Monday evening, several boys living at Irmulco found the roadster and notified the local authorities. The car when found was out of gasoline and the tires and rims were taken off.

MACE JUDGMENT AFFIRMED

The Appellate court this week handed down a decree affirming the judgment in the case of the People vs. R. D. Mace, accused of obtaining money under false pretenses from H. L. Preston of this city.

This means that Mace will have to serve his sentence, as it is not deemed likely the supreme court will entertain a hearing in the matter.

QUAIL SEASON TO OPEN NOVEMBER 1

The open season for valley and mountain quail will begin November 1, the bag limit being the same as last year, that is, fifteen valley quail in one day, and not more than thirty in one week, and mountain quail eight. Due to the unusually dry season this year, the quail have multiplied well, and sportsmen who have been looking over the hunting grounds throughout the county report good prospects for this year.

Jack Holliday, who was reported as seriously ill in a San Francisco hospital last week, continues to be in a very serious condition. He has a throat affection, thought to be cancer.

GIRL HORSE THIEF WAS ON WAY TO CUMMINGS

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 22.—Frances O'Neil, 16-year-old Oakland girl who disappeared from that city Saturday with a thoroughbred riding horse and for whom officials have conducted a statewide search, was arrested Tuesday morning in Cloverdale by City Marshal Fred Daniels.

She admitted that she was the much looked for "horse thief" and was later brought to the sheriff's office here. She told Sheriff John M. Boyes that she took the horse in order to visit her father's ranch at Cummings, Mendocino county.

In a detailed account of her escapade the girl stated that she coaxed an unsuspecting stable groom at the Oakland Riding Academy into lending her the horse for a short ride. She then drove to the Point Richmond ferry and crossed to Marin county, making her way northward along the state highway. At night she slept in haystacks.

Boyes learned that her mother was Mrs. Delia O'Neill of 1424 Adeline street and the girl will be returned to her home today. The owner of the horse told officials that he would not prosecute.

REV. BEASLEY RETURNED.

The public in general of Ukiah will share with the members of the M. E. Church, South, pleasure in the knowledge that Rev. L. C. Beasley of that church has been returned by the conference to the pastorate here for the ensuing year.

Mr. Beasley and his family have made a place for themselves in the life of the town and the hearts of its people that would be hard to fill.

Mr. Beasley returned home Monday evening from the conference, which was held at Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gibson were visitors over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson in this city.

Mrs. L. K. Van Allen, who has been visiting her daughter, Joy, at Stockton, returned the latter part of last week to her home in this city.

UKIAH BOYS ATTEND CONVENTION AT DAVIS

The club winners of Mendocino county attended their first annual club convention held at the university farm, Davis.

The instructor and leader, Mr. Shultis, took three boys with him. They were LeRoy Jameson, the winner of the corn contest; Walter Freeman, taking first prize in the strawberry contest; and Morris Norgard, who won second prize in the pig feeding contest. Freddie Waugh, winner of the poultry contest, went individually to the convention with his father.

The program included many demonstrations and speeches by which every boy surely profited very much. There were demonstrations in animal husbandry, dairy industry, poultry husbandry, soils and irrigation, etc.

The boys camped in tents and were fed in army style. At this statewide Boys' Club Convention over 600 boys and instructors were present. All had a good time and learned a lot. In the evenings they were entertained by stunts and movies.

The farm bureau is to be thanked for sponsoring the club work the past year and for partly defraying the expenses of the winners on their trip to Davis.

SURVEYS NEW WHARF SITE AT NEEDLE ROCK

Sydney Smith returned a few days ago from Needle Rock, where he was engaged in surveying a site for the new wharf. The structure is to be some distance down the coast from the present one, which is in bad shape on account of the wear and tear of the weather.

The proposal to build a new wharf evidently foreshadows renewed activity in that section in the near future in the timber and bark industry.

O. L. Pinches, Lynn Brown and N. C. Terwilliger, three well known citizens of the Laytonville section, were in town on witness duty the first of the week.

CAR DESTROYED BY FIRE ON ORRS SPRINGS ROAD

The automobile of Jesse Brayton of Northwestern was completely destroyed by fire last Thursday evening while he was returning to his home from the coast where he was employed, says the Willits News.

According to the details of the destruction, Brayton was driving along the Orr's Hot Springs road and was at the summit of the Orr's Hot Springs hill when the automobile became ignited in some way and was soon in flames.

He made frantic attempts to stop the blaze, but was unable to succeed. The flames ate the new late model four cylinder Buick car. The fire swept the automobile very quickly, making it impossible for him to save a suit case containing his clothing.

The fire occurred about 11:30 in the evening. Brayton walked to Ukiah and later proceeded to Willits and to his home at Northwestern.

The car was covered by insurance.

INVITE PUBLIC TO HEAR AMENDMENTS DISCUSSED

Legislative Committee of Saturday Afternoon Club to Be Addressed Oct. 29

A meeting has been called by the legislative committee of the Saturday Afternoon club, for next Wednesday evening, October 29, in the Saturday Afternoon club room, at 8 p. m. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the measures to be voted upon at the November election.

There are eighteen of these measures. The first six will be discussed by Judge H. L. Preston; the second six by Hale McCowen Jr., and the third six by Charles Kasch.

Before the discussion of the measures there will be a half hour of music under the direction of Mrs. H. O. Cleland, with several selections by the Ukiah orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Anderson.

This meeting is arranged for the benefit of the community, and the general public is invited to be present. The speakers have been asked, not only to explain the several measures, but to give their views thereon as well. An opportunity will be given to any person who so desires to take the opposite side of the question.

This is a good opportunity for the public to hear a discussion of these measures, and all who can make it possible are urged to avail themselves of it.

"KOSMOS" LADIES HOLD RECEPTION YESTERDAY

The ladies of the Kosmos club held their annual "gentlemen's evening" last night at the Saturday Afternoon club rooms in the Eversole building. A delightful musical program was presented, as follows: Miss Maxine Adams, piano solo; Mrs. Margaret Ford, vocal solo; Mrs. A. Pioda, instrumental solo. The members and their guests also enjoyed several hours of whist, the rewards of which were appropriate favors. Refreshments were served.

The club rooms were prettily decorated with bright colored autumn foliage and Hallowe'en designs.

A very enjoyable time was had by all who attended.

SPRECKELS TO SPEAK

Rudolph Spreckels will speak here tonight at the courthouse in favor of the LaFollette candidacy for president of the United States. The public is invited to attend.

The meeting will be held out of doors if the weather permits and in the courtroom if not.

BUYS SHERWOOD RANCH

The former Chas. E. Russell ranch between Willits and Sherwood valley, was sold last week to F. A. Lowell, supervisor of the first district of Sonoma county. The ranch is stocked with 2000 head of sheep. It comprises 2300 acres of excellent range.

CATTLEMEN MEET AND ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Cooperative Marketing Plan Chief Topic of Discussion at Interesting Session

The final meeting of the cattlemen of Mendocino county for this year was held at the Hotel Willits Tuesday afternoon, at which time officers for the ensuing year were elected and important questions discussed.

The meeting was attended by R. M. Hagen, secretary of the California Cattlemens' Association; H. M. Rice, formerly secretary of the Arizona Cattlemens' Association, and R. L. Concannon, a cattleman of Merced county, and about twenty cattlemen of this county.

The cooperative marketing plan was the chief topic of discussion. Hagen explained the advantages of the plan and stated that the association has about 1100 cattlemen in the state signed up in favor of the plan. Hagen explained that the cattlemen who have signed up include owners having from 10 to 100,000 head of cattle. About 60 per cent of the cattlemen in the state are now signed up and that about 85 per cent are signed for the plan extending from Humboldt to Ventura county along the coast.

Cooperative buying of feed was also discussed. The cattlemen in attendance agreed to the plan and have signified their intention of assisting. The plan is that cattlemen may pool their orders for feed and receive it at far more reasonable figures.

In the legislative program regarding the trespass law, the Mendocino cattlemen went on record in favor of the modification of the present law and recommended that a written permit be needed instead of the verbal permit as at present.

The election of the officers for the new year concluded the meeting. T. B. Ricks was elected president of the local organization and Assistant Farm Advisor Foot was named as secretary, succeeding M. J. Fairfield.

Hagen and the visiting cattlemen, with the new officers, made a canvass of the county Wednesday to secure the signatures of cattlemen who have not signed up for the cooperative marketing plan.

Hagen, Rice and Concannon left Wednesday evening for Lake county where they made a canvass Thursday and returned to San Francisco that evening.

A number of the local cattlemen announced their intention of attending the annual meeting of the California Cattlemens' Association to be held at San Francisco December 12 and 13.—Willits News.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR TAXES COURT TO LIMIT

The criminal calendar in the local superior court was crowded to the limit this week. At one time there were two juries out deliberating and a trial going on, all simultaneously, and the judge and court attaches were kept on the jump. While the jury in the burglary case against the Boatwrights and Kipers was deliberating in the regular jury room, another jury was in the judge's chambers considering the case against the Boatwrights alone, and the judge with a third jury was trying the blind pig charge against Frank Moore.

It was the busiest week ever known in the history of the court.

RANCH HOME BURNED

A. S. Jenkins was in from his ranch at the upper end of Redwood valley yesterday on business. Mr. Jenkins's house was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. His family was away at the time. The fire almost caught him, as he did not awaken until the most of the building had been consumed. He saved only his clothing.

There was $1000 insurance on the building, which will not near cover the loss.

Human Beings Are All Pawns In Fate's Hand

As the Merry-Go-Round of Life turns quietly on its axis and whirls faces and places in a maze of mystery, there are some who like to fancy themselves standing aside and grinning at the revolving puzzle.

"You see, we weren't caught up with the rest when it started," they laughingly declare. "We didn't 'fall' for a clumsy, glittering chariot or a foolish hobby-horse—we're on solid ground for life."

Poor folks—they live under that delusion for a little bit and then the still objects they are looking at so placidly seem to begin moving, and too late they realize that the Merry-Go-Round has caught them. Like marionettes they are jerked by strings of fate onto the whirling platform, and the rest of life is made up of corners that don't look square and angles that twist and turn.

Life's dramatic revolution on the inescapable Merry-Go-Round of fate is pictured vividly in "Merry-Go-Round," the Universal Super-Jewel spectacle film, which is to be the special attraction at the State theatre next Thursday and Friday.

It is a story which tells of love and life in old Vienna. The cast includes such famous players as Norman Kerry, Caesare Gravina, George Hackathorne, George Siegmann, and Dale Fuller, and two whose work is far beyond their experience — Mary Philbin, the heroine, and Anton Vaverka, a former Austrian army officer who impersonates Emporer Francis Joseph.

The production was lavishly staged on reproductions of Vienna streets. In connection with the filming of the picture it is interesting to note that a reproduction of "The Prater," the Coney Island Vienna was constructed at Universal City. This is one of the largest and most expensive sets ever constructed.

"The Signal Tower," a Universal picture that was produced in Fort Bragg recently, "Her Marriage Vow," "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" featuring Lon Chaney, "The Story Without a Name," "The Last of the Duanes," Zane Grey's story featuring Tom Mix and Tony the wonder horse, "The Fast Set," featuring Betty Compson, "Wages of Virtue," starring Gloria Swanson, "Manhattan," Richard Dix's first starring vehicle, Reginald Denny in "The Reckless Age," Rudolph Valentino in "A Sainted Devil," "The Warrens of Virginia," a Wm. Fox special adapted from the play by William De Mille and David Belasco's noted stage success and "The Border Legion" another Zane Grey story are a few of the exceptional attractions that are booked for showing at Ukiah's theatre beautiful with the next few weeks, so Manager Roberts suggests that you be careful in arranging your dates.

NEWS NOTES FROM COVELO

COVELO, Oct. 21.—Allen Bryan has quit high school to accept a position in Willits.

Geo. Biggar went to San Francisco Friday to attend an important commitee meeting to be held Saturday. He and Mr. Bellatti have just been to Eureka to meet the highway committee and interview the Eureka chamber of commerce in regard to our highway proposition. They were guests at a fine banquet given by the chamber of commerce.

The farm center meeting Thursday night proved a big success. Excellent attendance; all chairs in the auditorium being filled. Harry Holden, a traveling drummer friend of the Biggars, sang several oldtime songs which were well rendered and greatly enjoyed. He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Douglas Robinson, who plays beautifully. Farm Advisor Myszka, Horticultural Commissioner Orval Tadlock, Assessor Frank Reynolds, Mr. Kirkpatrick secretary of the Ukiah chamber of commerce, and Mr. Melville, candidate for the assembly, were all present as guests of the evening. The beautiful flowers furnished were the gift of G. R. Redwine. Miss Irene Wallace and her domestic science girls assisted the refreshment committee with the serving of an abundant supply of cake and coffee. They looked very attractive in their white aprons. Mrs. Biggar brought up the matter of securing dishes for the domestic science room, to be used for any community affair and a collection of $17.35 was taken up to purchase cups and saucers, the nucleus of the future supply of dishes.

Needless to say it was much appreciated, as these two singers are well known in our community.

It has been rumored that Chautauqua would not be held here this year, but this is a false report, as several of our citizens have received letters to the effect that they will be here on November 28-29, December 1-2-3, November 30 being omitted as that date falls on Sunday. Round valley people are looking forward with much pleasure to this festival and no doubt the attendance will be larger than last year. They have an excellent program for each night.

NORTHWESTERN PACIFIC

A Service That Met The Test

THREE main factors enabled the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to weather the long drought without any shortage of power, and, at the same time, to supply an increased demand amounting to twelve per cent, and to give service to 21,338 new consumers.

1. The efforts of a devoted and efficient organization.

2. Co-operation for the public benefit among the power companies of California.

3. Diversity of demand in its wide territory built up through the years by foresight and initiative, and making possible the maintenance of large auxiliary plants without unduly burdening the ratepayers.

Factories, mines, farms, railways, stores and homes, pulling on the lines together, this summer put Pacific Service to the most severe test it ever encountered; but it met every call and steadfastly maintained its high standard without any increase in rates.

That achievement means much to the public in terms of industrial and agricultural prosperity and domestic comfort. For years the P. G. and E., always looking ahead, had prepared for such a test; and when the emergency came Pacific Service met that test. Next season another mighty plant—Pit No. 3—will come into play and the company has no fear for the future.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company has 11,600 employes and 30,000 owners, nearly all Californians. This company is a true servant of the public, on the job in all seasons and at all hours.

WORLD WAR HERO TO GIVE LECTURE HERE

COL. DAN MORGAN SMITH
Soldier of Fortune and Author

Col. Dan Morgan Smith, commander in France of the famous "battalion of death," will be heard in an address to a community meeting in the Christian Church Tuesday, October 28, at 7:45 p. m. in his newest lecture, "The Spirit of America," or "Who is Running this Country?"

The meeting is open to everyone and admission is free.

Fought Against Spanish

Colonel Smith has been a soldier of fortune since as a youngster he engaged in gunrunning for the Cubans. His boat being wrecked off the Cuban coast, he went ashore and fought with the islanders against the Spanish.

He next commanded a company of Illinois National guard on the borders in 1916-17 and at the outbreak of the world war resigned his commission as a major to enlist in the regular army as a private, hoping thereby to reach France sooner. On French soil he commanded the first battalion, three hundred and fifty-eighth infantry, nineteenth division, A. E. F., known and applauded at Les Quatres Chemins as the "battalion of death."

He was then promoted from major to lieutenant colonel for bravery on the field of battle. He is now colonel of Infantry, CRC., U. S. A.

Authority on Law

Outside of his war record, Colonel Smith has been assistant corporation counsel of the city of Chicago, judge advocate of Illinois and special United States attorney. He has specialized in federal and international law.

As a writer he is well known, being author of "Americanism," "The Price of a Drink," "The World War," "The Fields of France," and "Tales of the Battalion of Death."

Gus Poage, a former attorney of Ukiah, now engaged in ranching near Gridley, has been here for several days renewing former acquaintances. He is accompanied by Mrs. Poage and they will be joine over the week end by their two daughters. They will return home the first of next week.

May be a popular song and a very catchy refrain, but we don't believe the sentiment expressed for one moment.

We know it will rain and that there will be dark and cloudy days but we put off the thoughts of them and live as though there would always be sunshine. The dark days are on us and catch us unprepared.

Just a little serious thought as to our future and a little money saved regularly will protect you against the rain.

Kleinert's Dual Rubber Miracle Reducer
A Rapid and Scientific Way to Reduce

The Miracle Hip Reducer, due to its construction and the material used, causes a gentle pressure on the underlying tissues and by excluding all the air from parts covered, induces excessive perspiration, without any discomfort to the wearer. A gradual reduction begins, and by wearing them constantly a reduction of from three to six inches can be accomplished in less than two months.

The Brassiere is made especially for women who are fleshy over the bust and on the shoulders directly behind and in front of the arms. This is particularly objectionable when in evening dress because of the aged appearance it gives one, but if this garment is worn as much as possible all that superfluous flesh will soon disappear.

Winning Football

Takes More Than Speedy Backs

You've got to have team-work and interference.

You can't win all life's battles by speed, either. You need "assistance" to gain success, and wealth, and the other things you want, just the way the man carrying the ball on the gridiron needs it.

Money in bank will "take out" the opposing obstacles and open the way to victory.

TELEPHONE FILM WILL BE AT UKIAH MONDAY

When the first telephone line in California was strung from Meiggs wharf to the Merchant's Exchange, in San Francisco, in 1876, the same year in which Alexander Graham Bell and his assistant, Thomas Watson, invented the telephone, the far-westerners again exhibited their knack of immediately utilizing new inventions and ideas for the furtherance of rapid communication. The stirring history of the telephone industry is colorfully and interestingly portrayed in a film called "Making Telephone History," to be shown at the State theatre, in conjunction with the regular program next Monday evening, October 27.

"Making Telephone History" was produced by experts of the Bell System, of which the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is an associated company, this year in New York City. No interesting feature is left out of the production and detail is subordinated in the interest of a clear, attractively presented picture, which holds the observer's attention from first to last.

The United States has always treasured its progressiveness in pioneering the great industries of communication. It now possesses, in the Bell System, two thirds of the world's telephones over which 50,000,000 daily messages are sent and received, although this country has only one-sixteenth of the world's population. California, with three and one-half per cent of the population of the United States has over five per cent of the telephones in use in this country. The many phases of an industry from which everyone requires instantaneous service are plainly depicted in "Making Telephone History."

Don Emerson and his mother left the first of the week for Winslow, Arizona, where they will visit for several weeks.

Wm. S. Woodhead, of Branscomb, was here the latter part of last week on business connected with the probating of the will of his late father. He is executor of the will.

Claude Van Dyke was up from Stockton the latter part of last week and the first of this on business connected with his agency for the New York Life insurance company. He is a former well known resident of Ukiah and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Dyke. He is doing exceedingly well in the life insurance business and is considered one of the company's best salesmen in the state.

MARKET REPORT

The market report issued by the state and federal livestock bureau last Tuesday, is as follows:

CATTLE: Receipts of cattle for the week ending today totaled 2,996 compared with 2,600 the week previous and consisted of 57 cars Californias, 33 Nevada and three Oregon, which have been too liberal for trade demands and prices on the dressed product have worked generally $1.50-$2.00 lower than the week previous. While several loads of fairly uniform Oregons and Nevadas averaging over 1100 lbs. scored $7.50-$7.75 there has been no money in their sale and slaughterers were bountifully supplied with medium and common steers the bulk of which averaged out considerably under 1,000 lbs. These later kinds were handled mostly on commission and load lots figured generally $5.00-$7.00 when final accounting was made. Sellers had no interest in holding them and the general policy was to sell each day in order to avoid losses in selling the next day. Bulk had only a covering and showed no marbling as well as considerable bruises. When finally hung up in coolers. Good cows are weak to 25c lower with the bulk of this class of material moving in narrow outlet. A ten car string of fancy Nevada cows figured around $4.25-$4.50 here and numerous loads of low grade cows brought $1.50-$2.00. Few odd head of bulls brought $3.50.

CALVES: Receipts of calves this week totaled 1,100 and consisted of medium to good southwesterns which were handled on commission for the most part. A week previous 750 head arrived. The bulk of calves figured around $6.75-$7.00 when final accounting was made. A few loads of heavy 350-450 lb. calves brought $5.00-$$5.50. Good to choice 200 lb. calves scarce, quotable $8.00.

HOGS: The hog market on closing days was somewhat lower with bulk of the medium Californias of 150-200 lb. weight moving around $11.50. Good to choice eastern hogs have cost up to $13.00, establishing a new high peak on the coast at this market which dates back to 1920. On account of lower eastern advices some concerns were bidding 50c per cwt. lower on Californias for next week. The supply of hogs for the week totaled 4,299, which was 2,000 less than the week previous, and some concerns were using their own material.

SHEEP: The lamb deal continues firm with good to choice 68 lb. full wooled Utah lambs scoring $13.00, although the bulk of receipts have been heavy shorn Island lambs averaging 80-90 lbs. which have cost $11.50-$12.00 off the barges. A string of good recently clipped lambs averaging 67 lbs. brought $11.00, which will grade in the meat as good as the above mentioned Utahs but lack the covering of wool. Four cars of choice 95 lb. full wooled yearlings scored $10.50 and a part car of 120 lb. full wooled wethers scored $8.00 with full wooled fat ewes at $6.00, considered 50c. higher than a week ago. Approximately 50 per cent number a premium of $4.00-$6.00 over heavy lambs at this market.

A. J. Scott, of Caspar, was a Ukiah visitor the first of the week.

FALL CLEANUP OF ORCHARDS

(By C. S. MYSZKA)

Growers who faithfully sprayed their orchards last fall and winter are anxious to know whether it is advisable to again spray this fall. Unless a complete control was secured, it would seem that resorting to fall spray again this year should be recommended. Many orchards are in a devitalized condition, due to drought and red spider, and small infestations which might occur generally throughout the orchards, may cause a severe damage to fruit again next year. Growers cannot afford to take a chance of ruining a fair percentage of their crop to avoid the expense and trouble of spraying. Two dormant sprays applied two years running should effect a thorough clean up, and hence fall spraying may not be needed next year. In fact, a dormant spray may not be needed again for two or three years.

MENDOCINO NOTES

The big navy dirigible, Shenandoah, which left her mooring mast at San Diego about 9 a. m. Thursday, sailed majestically along up the coast watched by admiring and wondering thousands on its flight north toward Camp Lewis, Tacoma, Washington. Passing over San Francisco at night it was watched for eagerly along the Mendocino coast.

The first word received here Friday morning was to the effect that she was passing Fort Ross, in Sonoma county, and at about 10:30 Point Arena advised that the big ship was passing that place, and from that time forward everything was dropped to watch for the flying monster of the air. At around 11 o'clock she was picked up by several with binoculars way down the coast. Then she was lost to view for a time as she was flying comparatively low and vision was obscured by the hills. Shortly she came into view to the naked eye looming to the southward of the Kent ranch.

In the distance she resembled a huge bologna sausage covered with tin foil, but as she gradually came nearer winging her way slowly and deliberately along she showed up in all her majesty and power. Six hundred eighty feet in length with apparently three motors running and about 500 feet from the earth, eager watchers could plainly see every detail with the naked eye. The subdued, steady murmur of the giant motors conveyed a sense of great power and very different from the sharp staccato bark of the ordinary flying machine. She passed almost overhead at 11:40 a. m. and with a glass passengers could be observed in her cabins located forward and under the body of the craft.

Weather conditions at this point were ideal, there being hardly a cloud in the sky and no fog while she was in sight and a light breeze from the northwest.

The Shenandoah carried in this leg of her flight a crew of 44 consisting of twelve commissioned officers, 32 privates, a newspaper correspondent and a motion picture camera man. Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne is skipper of the big air craft.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meltaus of Albion, celebrated their golden wedding Monday. They have recently moved into their new residence and Monday evening the wedding anniversary and removal into the new home were celebrated with a large number of friends whom this deserving couple have acquired in their long residence at this place. Mr. and Meltaus were married in Norway 50 years ago. Of their sons one, Fred, was present. The evening was delightfully spent and the good couple were felicitated by a large gathering.

A. E. Johnston of Fort Bragg, recently returned from a business trip to San Francisco, where he went in connection with the operation of the veneer mill at Russian Gulch. He has been cleaning up and making some repairs to the plant and it is understood that he will start to operate the same next week. Mr. Thornton plans to start a small plant at Noyo, but it will be some time yet before he gets the same in operation.

Boyle's camp closed Wednesday night. A portion of the crew was dispensed with when the mill first closed. The recent rains temporarily interfered with logging and it is understood that the camp will remain inactive until the engine at the mill is rebuilt and the plant is again started up.

Ralph Luoma, son of Eric Luoma of the Ukiah road section, who is employed at Camp 3 in the Albion logging woods, south of Keene Summit, was the victim of an accident Thursday when a log rolled unexpectedly and caught him, breaking his right leg between the ankle and the knee.

Negotiations are on foot, it is understood, for the purchase of a suitable steamer to put on the run between San Francisco and Russian Gulch. When the right craft is secured it will be run on a permanent and regular schedule.

The new bridge over Big river will not be open to travel for a month or two yet, as it will take some time for the concrete to harden in the piers.

REDWOOD VALLEY

REDWOOD VALLEY, Oct. 22.—Last Wednesday night at the Grange hall a "shower party" was held for the Pritchard family. Many friends of the family turned out despite the inclement night. After a short program the gifts were unwrapped and inspected. Then games were played, dancing indulged in and refreshments served. The Pritchards feel very gateful to their friends for the many useful gifts and wish to thank them one and all.

On Saturday night at the Improvement club house a farewell party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winsby. A short program was rendered. Bob Smith was in his usual good form and brought the house down with several humorous pieces. Mr. and Mrs. Winsby were presented with gifts by the farm bureau, Improvement club and ladies. Refreshments were served then and all visited or danced. At a late hour the party broke up with all hands wishing Mr. and Mrs. Winsby every success in their new home.

Mr. Burt, who recently purchased the Winsby ranch, came up from Pasadena last week. Mr. Burt was present at the Winsby farewell party and with Mr. and Mrs. Winsby was the guest of honor at lunch.

Kirk Ford has moved onto his ranch here. Jim McFarland, who is on the ranch, moved to Ukiah.

John Freitas has a contract for gravelling the county road from the Rosso ranch to Page's place.

A. L. Jenkins' house burned last Saturday night. Mr. Jenkins was sleeping in the house and was almost suffocated by the smoke before he woke up. He escaped, saving only a few clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Watson left the first of the week for Berkeley, where they will spend three weeks while Mr. Watson compiles the report of his summer's soil survey work.

The Grange is adding a kitchen to their hall.

Ed Hogan, well known rancher of the Anderson valley section, was in town on jury duty the first of the week.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 22.—People are turning their from national politics for a few days in order to study the proposed amendments to the constitution and the initiative measures that will appear on the ballot at the coming election. The voters have all doubtless received a small pamphlet containing all the measures that are on the ballot and arguments for and against each. These measures are of great import and may mean, in many cases, more to the average voter than the election of the President. All should study the list thoroughly between now and election.

* * * * *

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 25 is of great importance to the small litigant and should receive a very generous support as there is no valid argument against its ratification. It provides for the establishment of municipal courts of record in cities of a population of 40,000 or over. The adoption of this amendment will assure litigants of a speedy hearing of cases pending in the courts, as they are justly entitled to receive. In the large cities there is so much litigation that litigants have had to face heartrending delays—delays meaning the loss of time and money—because the courts could not assure the litigant of a hearing under a year after issue was joined.

* * * * *

The adoption of Senate Constituiional Amendment No. 25 will cure this defect in the law and it is much cheaper than establishing additional superior courts. The state supreme court has unanimously recommended the adoption of the amendment, as a money and time saver. It has been successfully tried out in Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia and other large cities, and would afford great relief in California cities like San Francisco and Los Angeles. Vote for it.

* * * * *

It is only a short time till election and if anything is done to change the situation, it must be done soon. Elections are usually won in October. In 1896, Bryan would have been elected had the election taken place in September, but in October things were changed. Mark Hanna united the forces against free silver.

* * * * *

The campaign of 1924 has been a peculiar one. La Follette started out early in the campaign with a slam and a bang. Outside of the reds, the socialists and the elements of discontent, he would have to draw recruits from both the old parties. As to which party he would draw the most from caused much argument and thus riveted the attention of the people to La Follette's cause. This wide publicity given him strengthened the third party movement.

* * * * *

The yellow press got busy "manufacturing" news and a great impetus was thus given to the Wisconsin traitor. But in the meantime people began to look into the record of this pro-German and the more the people looked and reflected the less rapidly did La Follette run, and now authentic news would indicate that his cause has begun to wane. The situation is interesting. Of course La Follette has to draw from both parties in order to make any kind of a showing. If "straw" votes count for anything he is drawing more Republicans than Democrats. But this is due to the fact that there are more registered Republican voters than there are Democrats. But La Follette cannot draw the Republican vote that Roosevelt got in 1912, because Roosevelt was a great big red blooded American—and La Follette is an alien, pro-German.

* * * * *

While there are a great many people espousing the cause of La Follette, the best informed political writers today believe that the Wisconsin Senator is slipping and has no chance whatever. No one knows what two weeks may bring forth, but the politically wise now place La Follette out of the running; and Davis and Coolidge must fight it out.

* * * * *

Both Coolidge and Davis are great big Americans and are going to divide the patriotic vote with each other. As La Follette is going to draw both Republican and Democratic votes, so will Coolidge draw Democratic votes and Davis will draw Republican votes. There was a trend awhile toward Coolidge and also quite a trend toward Davis. Both of the old parties claim the election in the electoral college and flout the idea that La Follette will carry a sufficient number of states to throw the election into Congress.

* * * * *

The supporters of Davis claim that he will carry the solid south and the border states and a number of so called doubtful states, enough to win the election. Coolidge enthusiasts also claim the election by a safe majority. They count on the New England states, the north central states and a great many of the western states. So there you are, Mr. Voter. Ten days may change this forecast, however.

* * * * *

Within a few days of the election the people should beware of what is known as "Eleventh Hour" reports gotten out hurriedly to mislead the voters. All kinds of reports will be put in circulation with the idea in view of confusing or misleading the voter. The La Follette bunch are long on that kind of stuff and will not stop at anything in order to accomplish their purpose. Any one that would turn traitor during the war would stoop to anything after the war to gain an advantage, so look out.

* * * * *

In California, the La Follette bunch are trying to create sympathy for their alien candidate by "baby tactics" such as the courts denied the La Follette electors a place on the bollot. Of course that is all bunk. No citizen has been debarred from voting for La Follette under the name of the only party whose nomination has been given him. The truth of the matter is he is debarred from running under false colors, but permitted to run under his true colors. Beware of this "sob sister" stuff. La Follette and his partner on the ticket are getting a much squarer deal than they deserve. Why did they not follow the law? They knew what the California law was and cannot plead ignorance.
